

Eastern Branch of the Professional Photographers of Ontario present a one day Wedding Workshop with master photographer James Hodgins MPA

Let's cover it all shall we?

Let's cover it all shall we? Weddings, the whole process explained NoBs Style. James will take you through a typical freestyle wedding, covering all aspects and angles of the business. Discover how to book your weddings years in advanced, learn to find and create dynamic images in the oddest places with minimal equipment and understand the concepts of off camera flash and mixing ambient light with flash. Learn simple yet effective marketing techniques using your website and blog.

James "Hodgy" Hodgins, co-creator of one of the most informative online resource center for photographers around the world

(www.nobsphotosuccess.com) has already lectured to over a thousand of photographers with his co-presented Digital Bootcamp Workshops. He has also been the key speaker at numerous conventions, seminars and tradeshow around the world including his 4th year at Niagara School of Imaging.

If you are looking to add some tools to your arsenal of tricks, if you are looking to find out ways to market your images, if you are looking to find out some post processing tips than this seminar is for you. James award winning images speak for themselves, his guerilla type style lets him work fast and create stunning images. James will cover the technical side of shooting with a live model shoot and afterwards will go through the post processing and marketing of your images this full day seminar is one not miss.
